

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Miss Della Coombs is visiting friends in Hopkins County.

Mr. A. V. Rutland returned from a business trip to Henderson Wednesday.

Walter Gilliland, of Louisville, has been in the city several days on a visit to his parents.

Jas. West, of the firm of Gaither & West, went to Hopkins county yesterday on business.

Mr. B. D. Ringo, editor of the Hartford Herald, accompanied by Mr. W. T. Hayward, a prominent Hartford lawyer, came over to hear legal lectures.

Vanderbilt Training School.

Hopkinsville ought to have this school because it would add, incalculably to the wealth of the city and county. There is no estimating the value of such an institution in our midst. It brings the best and most desirable people of the state here to educate their children. It enhances the value of property. It adds to the refinement and intelligence of the population. The people who move here for educational purposes, will bring their money and their property here. The taxable values of property will be so increased that taxation will be reduced. Does any sane man doubt this, after our experience with the public schools? Have not the property values of the town been increased over half a million dollars since our public schools were inaugurated? Has not our population increased over two thousand since that auspicious event? And did not the public schools bring in nearly a thousand additional population in a single year? Who can say that a great school is not a mine of wealth to any community? The proposed Training School will bring a number of eminent educators into our midst. It will bring numbers of men with boys to educate. It will bring not less than a hundred boys to Hopkinsville the first year, who at the lowest possible calculation will lay down twenty thousand dollars among our business men the first year, thus reaching every avenue of business. It will cost that sum to board them. The supply stores alone would get about $15,000 out of that many students. They will have to be clothed. They will need books. They will have to patronize the laundry. They would even have to be doctored, if perchance, any of them should get sick on the way to our great health resort. The managers propose to put up a twenty thousand dollar building. It would be an ornament that no city could ignore. It would give us a reputation as an educational center. No man can estimate the advantages from a moral standpoint, and no man can estimate the actual cash which it would bring to our town. We must have it. We can not do without it.

UNIQUE SUPPER.

The ladies of the M. E. Church South will give a "Kraus" Tea at the residence of Mr. C. B. Webb Monday evening from 6 to 10 for the benefit of the church. The entertainment, as well as the makeup of the bill of fare is unique and will prove very amusing and pleasing to all who attend. The price of the supper, including everything, is only 15 cents. The menu is as follows and the funny part about it is that everyone orders in the dark, as it were:

"DR. WHITE."

I have found your medicine to be all that you have represented it to be and I regard you both as a gentleman and a man who understands his business. Hoping for your continued success, I remain Your Friend,

D. C. WALLACE,

Licensed Inspector.

L. H. Fiquiera, 324 Court street, Paducah, says: "I was paralyzed for two years. Took a few bottles of W. W. W. remedy which rid me of a lame worm eight feet in length. Am now well and sound."

Dr. Geo. W. White is stopping at the Phoenix Hotel and can be seen at any time until Sunday next. He will give free consultations on West Ninth St., near Phoenix Hotel to-night and tomorrow night. All invited.

HERE AND THERE.

Vitalis Liver Pills restore lost appetite.

Mr. Henry J. Stiles is still very sick with grip.

Ben Campbell is up again after an attack of sickness.

This week has been a fine season for maple sugar making.

See special local of W. S. Chestnut, Adm'r., of E. C. Griffin, dec'd.

The Clarksville Pythians will dedicate their new Castle Hall on Feb. 26.

There is an epidemic of hydrophobia among the canine tribe around Crofton.

The young people enjoyed a leap year party at Anderson's Hall last evening.

Rev. R. L. Quate has sold his farm on the Russellville pike to E. A. Morris for $4,000.

Things have been pretty lively in police circles this week, as will be seen by reference to the city court news.

A colored O. V. laborer was kicked on the side by a mule near the city yesterday morning and dangerously injured.

The loose tobacco buyers - are scouring the country and gathering up may crops at from $4 to $7 per hundred.

There will be a Valentine German at Anderson's Hall next Monday evening, which will be the social event of the coming week.

Sam Frankel inserts a conspicuous advertisement on the front page of this issue. Every man in need of the articles he advertises should read it.

Prof. White, and his colored assistant, Prof. Robinson, have been in the city two days giving street concerts and selling three "W." remedies. They will remain until Sunday.

10,000 yards Tobacco Cotton, and five hundred (500) bushels of clover seed, at lowest prices. Mason & Willis, Newstead, Kentucky.

Dr. J. Robinson removes corns and bunions without pain in ten minutes. Ingrowing toe-nails a specialty. Try him. Concerts near Phoenix hotel nightly.

Circuit Court began at Cadiz Monday. The court house having been burned, court is being held in a store room on Main street, near the Farmers Bank. Representative Sims is at home from Frankfort for the week.

John Radford, whose shoulder was dislocated by a falling chest, at Forbes & Bro's mill, Monday, is still laid up but is getting well. Wm. Rhodes, the other injured workman, is again, but not able to work yet.

Dr. A. J. Knapp, the celebrated optician, will be in Hopkinsville on Feb. 17 and 18. As Dr. Knapp will not visit this city during March, parties desiring his services will do well to remember the above dates.

Mr. C. E. Kennedy is in Nashville this week where he went to have a surgical operation performed. Mr. Geo. M. Steele accompanied him. It is hoped that Mr. Kennedy may improve under the treatment and soon be well again.

The fact that Valentine's Day comes this year on Sunday will not stop the rush of mail matter that usually makes the postmasters miserable once a year. Preparations for sending valentines will make the sale of one cent stamps lively to-morrow.

One hundred and twenty-two hogheads of lugs and common to medium leaf were sold on the Board this week. The prices ranged from $2.70 to $5.80 for new lugs; from $1.50 to $3.50 for old lugs and from $3.25 to $5 for common to medium leaf. The market is quoted active and very strong on all grades. No good leaf was offered.

Dr. J. S. Appleman, the celebrated Louisville specialist, spent yesterday in the city according to announcement. His rooms were crowded all day and he did a good business. He now has a number of patients under treatment in this city and county. The Doctor will return some time in March. Date will be given in all next issue.

Mrs. Ada C. Layne has decided to add dressmaking to her millinery department and will be ready for business in that line March 1. She has secured the services of Miss Ticia Payne, late with Madam C. Grunder, modiste, Louisville, who comes highly recommended. Mrs. Layne will make a specialty of wedding trousseaus. Her millinery department will be complete in every particular and in combining the two she will largely increase her already flattering patronage. Read her advertisement which appears in this issue.

John R. Green & Co. insert an advertisement in this issue, to which the special attention of the farmers is directed. They handle everything in the implement line, from a rake to a reaper, and their stock of these goods is immense. They also handle the world's famous McCormick reapers, mowers and binders, which have given such satisfaction in this section. In connection with their other business they make a specialty of the All-Purpose Harrow, which is said by farmers who have used them, to be the best harrow for all purposes ever placed upon the market. Farmers would do well to call on this reliable firm when in need of goods in their line.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Collector Buckner Re-elected.

A special meeting of the City Council was held Monday night and Mr. S. G. Buckner was re-elected City Tax Collector for this year. He was recently nominated by the Democratic members in caucus, and was elected on the fifth ballot after complimentary votes had been cast for a number of other candidates.

The O. V. Extension.

Work on the Ohio Valley Extension is being pushed right along and new hands and teams are being added to the already large force daily. Mr. Morgan, the contractor for the first five miles of grading out of the city, informs us that about fifty teams and a hundred or more hands will leave Memphis Saturday and arrive by Tuesday. When this addition is made there will be 125 teams and 250 hands at work between here and Gracey, and with reasonably good weather the work of grading will be completed by April 15. The gap at Princeton will then be closed up and all the track laid out once by the Company's entire corps of section hands.

A Trigg Suicide.

Mr. Robert Malone, a prominent Trigg county farmer, cut his left jugular vein with a pocket knife at the home of Mrs. Neelie Mills, his niece, in Cadiz, about noon Saturday last, dying in a few moments. Mr. Malone was an ex-Federal soldier and had just filed the proper pension papers preparatory to securing a pension a few hours before he committed the rash act. No cause is assigned for the self destruction and his friends are at a loss to know why the deed was committed. He had threatened to take his own life several times before but was each time persuaded to abandon the idea. Deceased was 60 years old and leaves a wife. He lived on his farm about four miles south of Cadiz.

Ex-Senator Ingalls.

Hon. J. J. Ingalls, of Kansas, delivered his lecture on the "Social and Political Problems of our Second Century," at the Opera House Tuesday evening, to an audience that filled the auditorium, the gallery and the stage. The distinguished orator appeared at his best and his address of an hour and a half was listened to with rapt attention by all who enjoyed the pleasure of hearing him. He began by complimenting Kentucky. He devoted some time to a historical discussion of American institutions and then treated in detail the race question, foreign immigration, improper naturalization, suffrage, the Alliance "fallacy," the navigation of the atmosphere, rapid transit for the future and the spread of civilization as well as shown at the Colombian Exposition next year. His remarks were somewhat "rank" at times and strongly impregnated with the mistaken ideas of the Republican party, but notwithstanding the partisan coloring of his lecture it was an intellectual treat that was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Ingalls was tendered a reception at the home of Maj. Crumbaugh's after the lecture, and was that gentleman's guest while in the city. On the following day the distinguished visitor took a walk over the city and met many leading citizens. Judge Winfree was disposed to joke him about his defeat last year and asked:

"Senator, do you think Kansas politics has been purified any by the election of Peffer?"

"Did you ever know a custard to be purified with a bad egg?" was the quick reply.

The Deason Opera Company.

The Deason Opera Company will open an engagement of three nights and a matinee at the Opera House Monday night, Feb. 15. The company carries 32 artists and its praises are sounded by the press wherever it visits. The Winnipeg Tribune says: "There is only one Frank Deason and he it is that is now among us. Last night the beautiful opera Olivo, as presented by the Deason company delighted a large audience at the Metropolitan. Frank was at his best, the inimitable, the peer of all comedians who have appeared here; wit and humor seem to flow from him as naturally as water from an artesian well, sparkling, bright and pure, refreshing to the mind of the man of business weary by his day's labor; resting to the wife who has laid aside household cares for the nonce and exhilarating to all who give themselves the pleasure of listening to him. These remarks to be no effort, no forcing the humor out; it is spontaneous and contagious." Prices 50, 35 and 25 cents.

No. 180938 Again.

This policy was issued on the life of a citizen of Hopkinsville, for $10,000 in February, 1889. The dividend in 1891 was over 25 per cent. and for 1892 is nearly 26 per cent. Agents of rival companies have been saying for ten years that NORTHWESTERN DIVIDENDS could not hold up. Results disprove the statement. No company pays such large dividends as the NORTHWESTERN. No company is so strong.

DEATHS.

SHANKLIN.—Mr. John Shanklin died near Fairview of consumption.

ADAMS.—A two-year-old child of Mr. W. T. Adams died near Fairview a few days ago.

Mrs. William Perkins, a very estimable lady of the Pilot Rock neighborhood, died Monday of consumption, aged about fifty years.

Mrs. Thomas Puckett died at her home in Cadiz, Sunday last, of pneumonia, after a brief illness.

Railroad Rumblings.

The L. & N. has not yet made any movement towards building the new depot.

About twenty colored hands working on the O. V., in blasting rock at the foot of Twelfth street, struck for higher wages Tuesday at noon. Contractor Morgan refused to give more than the usual price of $1 a day and let them quit. A few returned to work and the places of the others have been filled with new men.

Engineers Smith and Barr have almost finished cross sectioning Contractor Morgan's division of the O. V. From the river in Major's field to Mr. B. S. Campbell's woods is a four mile air line over level and easily graded country. The deepest fill is only ten feet and there are a few cuts of as much as three feet. The west end force has pitched camp in Summers' field and their camp looks like a settlement of tents. Thirty or more teams are now at work and the next 60 days will witness a season of activity in railroad construction that will do good to the hearts of Hopkinsville's people who have waited so long and patiently for their hopes to be realized. W. A. Shippey, who has the contract for the other end, will start a similar force in a few days.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative syrup of Figa, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed near the bottom of the package.

L. & N. will sell round trip tickets

Hopkinsville to De Funkh springs, Fla. on Feb. 9, 10, 11, & 12 going returning until April 1st, at $22.25
